

NEW BOARD MEMBER WANTED WITH FUNDRAISING EXPERIENCE

Are you a well-connected individual?

Do you have a background in raising funds for arts activities and/or charities?

Do you have a flair for developing fundraising campaigns that capture people's attention?

We are seeking a Board Member with a background in Fundraising to:

- Champion our fundraising campaigns, engage contacts for support and help Turner Sims develop new, strong external partnerships
- Work with the Turner Sims team to identify prospects gathered from a range of sources including other Board Members
- Feed into the development of a new Fundraising Strategy (which will involve the commissioning of a specialist consultancy and strong partnership with the University's Office of Development & Alumni Relations - ODAR)
- Provide editorial input into funding applications, proposals and associated collateral
- Work alongside Turner Sims and ODAR to achieve our fundraising aims

It is an exciting time to join Turner Sims as we have just secured £315,755 Arts Council England Ambition for Excellence funding to launch 'Jazz South' - a new talent development programme in the Southern regions and a further £30,000 Arts Council England 'Catalyst Small Grants Programme' funding to launch a series of fundraising campaigns.

Through the Catalyst funded campaigns we hope to raise funds to help achieve our ambitious capital plans and deliver new learning and engagement programmes.
